

Vanderhoof Aquatic Centre gets kick start from Avison Management

Avison Management Services is proud to have donated $10,000 toward the future Vanderhoof Aquatic Centre.

Avison kickstarts donation challenge

NEWSPAPER CLIPPING OF DONATION IN THE OMINECA EXPRESS, OCTOBER 29, 2014.

Rebecca Watson Omineca Express

The Vanderhoof Aquatic Center Society received their first large corporate docation Oct. 16 from Armon Management Services.

The forestry consultant company donated $10,000 to the Aspanic Centre in hopes of starting a strowhall effect, said Stewart Sinclair President of Asisen Management Services.

"The idea in to get the process imposited," and Mr. Sinclair, "We challenge some of the other businesses in Vanderhoof to now dorate. Let's get this project on the read."

the read." With $73,833 eated from the consolv apple last meath, $23,833 from levest Local BC, $24,000 from original membershaps and $10,0000 from Avison, the sound source of anised frands to due in $23,006. All the meany raised for the pool grees to the Vanlerhoot the pool grees to the Vanlerhoot dupatic Centre. The large dosation from Avison was deposited in the Aquatic Centre Society." account and will stay there for the long term, said Eden Oryschuk, secretary for the Stuart Nechako Regional Pool Society. "We're raising funds on our We've raking funds on cur we've raking funds on curtant hat the dominon from Aviora it much appreciated and is to their new So-Challenge other scopes," and N. Oyuschuk. "It's teast's warning that we have folds it is community to support fantinesing efforts flake the cornedy iggel and the public flawdawing proug will contraste to have events scenarie it all goes more the same step but it wan very generoise of yonen to kiccurat the challenge."

Accepting the allerge on beleaf of the Verderloof Aquate-Centre Solvy was Paul Server, president of the Staart Nechalon Regional Pool Society, a group entablished as help raise fundand rainates public presence. The regional group was formed about in your ago and over the summer the public fundaming group was information visit the Venderboof Aquate Centre Tacebook page.

DONATION: Arises leckstarts funding to bring a pool to Vanderboef with a $10,000 donation challenging other businesses to do the same. Holding the cheque is Scewart Sinclaid president of Arises Arises and Stewart, supresenting the Regional Pool Society.

On October 16, 2014, Avison Management Services made the first significant corporate donation towards the future Vanderhoof Aquatic Centre. The amount – $10,000 – more than doubled the amount already raised for the centre. Avison Management's donation was a challenge to other businesses and corporations that have a base in Vanderhoof to step-up and donate to this important project.

Supporting the Vanderhoof Aquatic Centre fits perfectly within the values of Avison Management. Our company's mission statement is:

"We are committed to providing high quality, timely, and cost effective services to our clients. We provide a positive and rewarding workplace for our employees, and we support the communities we live and work in by supporting our employees and community organizations."

An aquatic centre in Vanderhoof will help attract and retain potential employees and professional to the community, a point that is key to Avison Management's success as a leader in its field. As well, the health and social benefits of having an aquatic centre in the heart of the community will benefit Avison Management employees and all residents. Avison Management is proud to have made this important contribution towards Vanderhoof.